

BRANDING YOUR CLEANING PRODUCTS

Why Should You Private Label?

Privately labeling your selected range of cleaning solutions with your unique company logo and details has been proven to increase brand awareness for you, the brand owner - Once the product leaves your store the brand is potentially exposed to a greater audience at any time with in the product's life cycle.

Why Choose us?

Our experienced marketing team will work with you to execute your vision and have your brand looking sharp, using the latest software and printing solutions.

How Do You Start?

Branding is easy! Simply send us an email with custom label request in the subject line and include what products you would like to have labelled to sales@bomborasupplies.com.au along with your logo in a high resolution file type (.eps or .ai work best). Alternatively you can call us via the details below if you require assistance.

We will then provide you with a proof of your art design. Any future purchases of these products will be sent with your branding. If you ever need to update your branding or would like to expand more products into your offering, simply talk to one of our customer service representatives and we will arrange updates for you.

For more information, contact us via the details below.